Introduction

Working with a speaker should be a stress-free experience, at every stage of the event. To make working with me a phenomenal experience, find all relevant information in my speaker kit

If you're reading this, it means you're thinking about inviting me to speak at your event, whether that's face-to-face or online. First off, thank you! I appreciate your consideration and I'm confident you've made a great choice.

With a background in public speaking and corporate events, both in-person and digital, I know firsthand how tricky it can be to gather all the necessary info quickly. That's why I've made things easier by putting all the important details you need in one place.

Here you'll find out about who I am, my professional journey, media features, feedback from clients, notable organizations I've worked with, and my past and future speaking engagements. I've also included some of my favorite keynote topics and professional photos for promotional use.

This all-in-one resource is designed to make your job simpler and give you a feel for my straightforward, professional approach.

If at any point you're missing something or think I should add something else to this kit, please feel free to email me directly at dionne@db-consultingservices.com. You're also welcome to get in touch with my operations manager for immediate help.

Our goal is to offer you top-tier service, and I'm excited about the prospect of working with you now and in the future.

Once again, thank you for thinking of me for your event. Here's to our future collaboration... Congratulations, and let's create some real change!
